YOUR NEXT PRECISION GEARHEAD.

(OR WORK ON YOUR PERSONAL LIFE)

Let's face it, global competition and the pursuit of increased productivity are driving the need for motion and control technologies and systems. You expect high performance from system components and from the people who stand behind them. CGI has been delivering performance for more than 35 years by providing agility and quality in the design and manufacture of precision power transmission products.

CGI offers a complete range of planetary gearheads as well as engineering support to design a gearhead solution to fit your needs. CGI's greatest asset is its people who provide industry-leading customer service to keep you in the race. So, if you get all worked up over things like these then give us a call at 800.568.4327 or visit us at www.cgimotion.com.
